

January Parent + Child Workshop

Edible Color Wheel

Smarty pants welcomes Turnip the Heat Kid's Cooking School, as we learn just how artful healthy food prep can be! Let us lead you and your young chef through an edible exploration of the color wheel, using the whole mouth-watering rainbow. We will mix and chop together to create a colorful meal, with a side of color theory. Then we will all enjoy our bright, healthy lunch together!

January 23rd, 2016 11am $35 non-members/ $30 members

Monthly workshops are carefully chosen to be fun for all ages, and even more fun for kids and grown-ups to work on together. Advanced registration is required.

Price is for one parent+child duo and covers all materials, supplies and instruction.....and lunch!
